In the fourteenth question, respondents indicated the number of student exchange agreements their institutions have with a selected list of countries. The countries selected are: the USA, Canada, Mexico, Colombia, Chile, Peru, Brazil, Argentina, France, Germany, Belgium and Spain.

Active agreements with the USA: four respondents (12.5%) said that they don’t have any active agreement with the USA. Seventeen respondents (53.13%) have between 1 to 5 active agreements with the USA and four interviewees (12.5%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements. Three interviewees (6.25%) said their institutions have from 11 to 20 active agreements with the USA. Two respondents (3.13%) said they have from 41 to 60 active agreements with the USA. One university has more than 41 to 60 active agreements with the USA. And only one institution has more than 60 active agreements with the USA.

Active agreements with Canada: Eleven (39.29%) of the respondents don’t have active agreements with Canada. Thirteen (46.43%) of answers affirm to have from 1 to 5 active agreements with this country. One university (3.57%) has from 6 to 10 active agreements with Canada and two (7.14%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with Canada. And only one (3.57%) has from 21 to 40 active agreements with Canada.

Active agreements with Mexico: Three (9.09%) don’t have any active agreements with Mexico. Nineteen (57.58%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Mexico. Six (18.18%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Mexico. Three (9.09%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with Mexico. One (3.03%) has from 21 to 40 active agreements with Mexico. And only one (3.03%) has from 41 to 60 active agreements with Mexico.

Active agreements with Colombia: One (3.33%) does not have any active agreements with Colombia. Twenty-two (73.33%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Colombia. Five (16.67%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Colombia. And two (6.67%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with Colombia.

Active agreements with Chile: Five (16.13%) don’t have any active agreements with Chile. Twenty-five (80.65%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Chile. And one (3.23%) has from 11 to 20 active agreements with Chile.

Active agreements with Peru: Four (12.9%) don’t have any active agreements with Peru. Twenty-three (74.19%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Peru. Two (6.45%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Peru. Two (6.45%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with Peru.

Active agreements with Brazil: Six (21.43%) don’t have any active agreements with Brazil. Nineteen (67.86%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Brazil. Two (7.14%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Brazil. And only one (3.57%) has from 11 to 20 active agreements with Brazil.

Active agreements with Argentina: Four (12.5%) don’t have any active agreements with Argentina. Twenty-six (81.25%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Argentina. And two (6.25%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Argentina.

Active agreements with France: Five (16.13%) don’t have any active agreements with France. Fifteen (48.39%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with France. Six (19.35%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with France. Three (9.68%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with France. One (3.23%) has from 21 to 40 active agreements with France. And one (3.23%) has from 41 to 60 active agreements with France.

Active agreements with Germany: Six (22.22%) don’t have any active agreements with Germany. Ten (37.04%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Germany. Seven (25.93%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Germany. Two (7.41%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with Germany. One (3.7%) has from 21 to 40 active agreements with Germany. And only one (3.7%) has from 41 to 60 active agreements with Germany.

Active agreements with Belgium: Twelve (42.86%) don’t have any active agreements with Belgium. Fifteen (53.57%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Belgium. And one (3.57%) has from 6 to 10 active agreements with Belgium.

Active agreements with Spain: Five (15.15%) don’t have any active agreements with Spain. Fifteen (45.45%) have from 1 to 5 active agreements with Spain. Eight (24.24%) have from 6 to 10 active agreements with Spain. Four (12.12%) have from 11 to 20 active agreements with France. And only one (3.03%) has from 21 to 40 active agreements with Spain.

Source: CLADEA
Own Elaboration