Question 15.

In the fifteenth question, respondents indicated if the following statement “Incoming students is higher than outgoing students” was true or false according to the situation of their institutions.

The 54.1% of the respondents answer that their outgoing students is higher than their incoming students. And the 45.9% have more incoming students than outgoing students.

Source: CLADEA
Own Elaboration