Question 4.

In the fourth question, respondents ranked from 1 to 7 the importance of a list of selected statements about their internationalization policy. For this question, 1 means “not important” and 7 means “very important”.

According to the percentage of the top two boxes (T2B), which means the very important topics and the rating average, the majority tells that the most important criteria based on their internationalization policy is International exchanges of students and attraction of international students to the institution with 84% and an average of 6.16. The next is Mobility opportunities for students (internships, study abroad) with 76% and an average of 6.11. The next is Strengthening the international / intercultural content of the curriculum with 73% and an average of 5.93. The fourth is Development of joint - Double degree programs with partner institutions abroad with 71% and an average of 5.98. And the last of the top 5 statements is Welcoming of international academician with 71% and an average of 5.84.

The sixth place is between Collaboration in international research projects and Promotion and recruitment of international undergraduate students both with 62% of approval. The seventh place is between Visits of foreign academician and experts to the university and Mobility opportunities for academic staff with 60% of approval. Then the next statement is Internationalization in campus with 58%. The next statement is Promotion and recruitment of international undergraduate students with 53%.
Which of the following statements do you consider is more important in your internationalization policy:

- International exchanges of students and attraction of international students to the institution
- Mobility opportunities for students (internships, study abroad)
- Development of joint - Double degree programs with partner institutions abroad
- Strengthening the international - Strengthening the international/intercultural content of the curriculum
- Welcoming of international academicians
- Visitas de académicos y expertos extranjeros a la universidad / Visits of foreign academicians and...
- Colaboración en proyectos internacionales de investigación / Collaboration in international.
- Internationalization in campus
- Mobility opportunities for academic staff
- Promotion and recruitment of international undergraduate students
- Promotion and recruitment of international undergraduate students
- Teaching foreign languages as part of the curriculum
- Design and implementation of training and international development projects

Source: CLADEA
Own Elaboration